

Gifts Offered by Government Contractors to Government Officials - 19 /Jul/ 2019

Q.1 If a government contractor were to give a monetary gift to the government official by whom he is hired or to the government supervisor who is responsible for assessing and overseeing his work, would this be a permissible action?

A.1 All such practices that can potentially lead to the spread of bureaucratic corruption are to be avoided at all costs.