In a message, Ayatollah Khamenei expressed his condolences on the death of the scholar Hujjat al-Islam wal-Muslimin Haj Sayyid Hassan Mostafavi.

Following is the text of the message of the Leader of the Islamic Revolution:

In the name of God, the most compassionate, the most merciful

I offer my condolences to the beloved family and the students and devotees on the death of the wise scholar, Hujjat al-Islam wal-Muslimin, Haj Sayyid Hassan Mostafavi (may God bless his soul). Research and teaching in intellectual sciences and Islamic philosophy was the most prominent scientific activity of this revolutionary and hard-working cleric, who, in addition to his cultural and public activities, created a wealthy record for that honourable man. I ask Almighty God for great reward, mercy and forgiveness for him.

Sayyid Ali Khamenei
