

President's speech at UN brought honor to nation - 30 /Sep/ 2007

Islamic Revolution Leader, Ayatollah Sayed Ali Khamenei said the Iranian president's recent visit to America was a good and blessed event which brought honor to the Iranian nation.

In a meeting with President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad Sunday evening, Ayattolah Khamenei said: "Your speech at Columbia Universtiy and what happened there as well as your address at the United Nations General Assembly session on the whole honored the Iranian nation."

The Islamic Revolution Leader praised Ahmadrinejad's statements and attitude during his visit.

In the meeting the president presented a report on his visit to America, Bolivia and Venezuela.