

World hegemony seeks to spread insecurity - 20 /Sep/ 2011

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei alerted the IRI police that the world hegemony was seeking to undermine independent nations by spreading of insecurity.

"The spread of social, moral and spiritual insecurity is among the schemes employed by the world arrogance to counter the progress of independent nations," Ayatollah Khamenei said in an address to police personnel and staff in a cadet graduation ceremony on Tuesday.

The IR Leader added that social and moral security was among the main pillars of Iran's progress and honor.

The IR Leader said the police had the key responsibility to adopt pre-emptive measures to counter any likely threats.

Ayatollah Khamenei also urged the law enforcement units to serve as a symbol of strength, order, kindness and leniency.

The ceremony was wrapped up with the police units marching past the stand.
