

Leader meets with war disabled people - 28 /Sep/ 2011

Leader of Islamic Revolution Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei met with a number of spinal cord injured devotees of Tehran.

During the meeting, Ayatollah Khamenei spoke with tens of war disabled and devotees and lauded their families' belief and resistance.

Ayatollah Khamenei said that respecting the war disabled people and devotees manifested the actual meaning of self-sacrifice in the society and the Islamic system needs it seriously.

The Leader of the Islamic Revolution expressed his sincere respect to the fathers, mothers, wives, children and nurses of the war disabled and said, " Honest services of the war disabled were the biggest self-sacrifice and Jihad and has a great value before God."