

IR Leader: students have dual assignments - 1 /Jan/ 2012

Islamic Revolution Leader Ayatollah Sayyed Ali Khamenei urged Iranian students studying abroad to acquire knowledge in a diligent way and at the same time elaborate on and delineate the stances of the Islamic Republic.

The IR Leader made the remarks in a meeting Monday with members of the Islamic Associations Union of Iranian students studying in Europe.

As for acquisition of knowledge, Ayatollah Khamenei said the pre-revolutionary era was faltering in absence of a scientific and spiritual grandeur that eventually led the country to fall dependent to the aliens.

"The nation found confidence in itself however and left a spiritual cage to solve the country's problems following the victory of the Islamic Revolution and due to the ineffable spirit of Imam Khomeini in relying on God and heeding the nation," the IR Leader said.

As for delineation of IRI's stance, Ayatollah Khamenei said the Islamic Iran has got impressive accomplishments in its encounter with the World Arrogance as well as its complicated, huge economic and propaganda network. Ayatollah Khamenei singled out IRI's struggle against sanctions and IRI's nuclear advances as part of such accomplishments, adding that the nation will keep the successful trend.

Ayatollah Khamenei urged the nation to keep diligence and enhance the advantages, adding however that the enemy, despite exerting a huge volume of political, security and economic conspiracies against the Islamic Republic was suffering back to back failures.
